

Welcome to Canada Bursary Application

Eastern College recognizes the need to support refugees, protected persons, and people displaced by war arriving in Canada. Eastern College is stepping up to provide assistance to those who are considering post-secondary education by offering a bursary that can be used towards a full-time diploma program at any of our four campuses across Atlantic Canada. We are helping to create a platform for these individuals to rebuild their lives.

A total of 5 bursaries will be available.

Complete and sign below then submit to your Education Consultant at Eastern College at the address below or the campus you will be attending.
