POLICY

- 1) Each year the College presents an award titled Campus of the Year to the campus with the most overall points calculated across all areas of campus operations.
- 2) Over the course of the year each campus holds events and completes activities that generate points to aid in determining the Campus of the Year (COTY).
- 3) The total points from these events are used to determine the winning campus. The winning campus shall receive an award to be displayed at the campus. The campus is treated to a campus dinner by the College Executive team members and the Campus Director from the winning campus will be eligible to attend the Pinnacle trip. A runner-up is also declared, and a plaque is presented to that campus.
- 4) Attainment will be set annually based on the fiscal year. This will be communicated to CD/REDs prior to the new fiscal year launch.
